Modern black pull out kitchen tap - Make your home a showpiece

One of the most popular trends in kitchen design right now is the use of black stainless steel appliances. If you're looking to create a coordinated look in your kitchen, a pull out kitchen tap would be the perfect complement to your existing appliances.

With the pullout hose RH-120-EX kitchen tap, you'll have a stylish sink that will look great in any kitchen. The matte finish of the kitchen mixer tap not only complements most decors, but it also creates an elegant atmosphere!

This mixer tap has a modern design that will match your home's current decor. Also our sink mixer tap is made of superior metal that won't wear out quickly!
